INTRODUCTION

Hand-forged in brass and copper, finished by hand.

Each piece in this catalogue is worked in iron and brass sheet, hand-painted or hand-enamelled by artisan clusters across Rajasthan. Built for retail display and export, the range spans folk-art seating, working desk companions, tribal candle figures, festive diyas, and decorative curios — sized and packaged for easy stocking.

Mudda Stools

01

Brass Mudda Stools

Perforated brass drum stools topped in warm sheesham wood, in a graduated set of five — Moroccan-inspired seating with an Indian soul.

02

Painted Mudda Stools

Hand-enamelled in black and gold with a medallion motif, each topped in polished wood — a striking set of four for a majlis corner.

Desk Companions

03

Cycle Clock Stand

A miniature brass tricycle fitted with a working clock face and a perforated pen basket — equal parts timepiece and desk tidy.

04

Boatman's Crew

Five hand-painted copper oarsmen row a hand-beaten copper boat, with a perforated pen holder riding at the centre.

05

Little Engine

A vintage-style locomotive in aged brass and black, its boiler doubling as a jewel-studded pen holder on four wooden wheels.

Desk Companions

06

The Cartman

A hand-painted Rajasthani figure pushing a wheeled cart, paired with a perforated pen holder and a companion brass pot.

07

Leaping Deer Cart

A hand-painted red deer, antlers raised, harnessed to a wheeled pen caddy — folk art with a working desk purpose.

Tribal Light Bearers

06

08

Balancing Bearer

A wire-wrapped copper figure holding two candle dishes aloft on outstretched arms — sculptural symmetry for a mantel or table run.

09

Tea-Light Ladies, Gold

Four brass tribal figures in varied poses, each cradling a tea-light dish — a warm processional for a console or dining table.

10

Tea-Light Ladies, Red

The same processional cast in deep red and black enamel with gold trim — a bolder companion set for festive tablescape.

Diyas & Candle Stands

11

Antler Candle Tree

A gilded branch form cradling three crackle-glass votives on its tips — a sculptural centrepiece for candlelit tables.

12

Diya Tower

A two-tier brass stand ringed with fourteen lotus-shaped diyas — a festive centrepiece built for Diwali and celebration tables.

13

14-Inch Urli Bowl

14

Lotus Tea-Lights

Wanderer's Globes

15

Elephant Globe, Copper

A weathered copper elephant head cradles a vintage-map globe between its tusks — an heirloom-style piece for a study desk.

16

Elephant Globe, Painted

The same silhouette dressed in hand-painted jewel tones and gold trim — a more festive take on the traveller's motif.

Curios & Companions

17

Longneck Deer Pair

Elongated copper deer with gold-leafed antlers and chests, balanced on slender legs — a sculptural, minimalist pair.

18

The Trio

Three hand-painted tribal musicians on a wire arch, complete with dangling bell charms — a folk-art tableau for a shelf.

19

Bunny Muse Vase

20

Songbird Carriage

Curios & Companions

21

Nagpuri Musicians

A trio of hand-painted folk musicians mid-performance, cymbals and strings in hand — a colourful companion set to The Trio.

22

Chime Sisters

Three wire-framed tribal figures perched on box stands, each trailing a pair of brass bell charms — playful movement for a shelf.

23

Elephant Pedestal Bowl

A silvered elephant, trunk raised, bears an engraved bowl on its back — jewelled trappings finish the regal effect.

Curios & Companions

24

Elephant Serving Tray

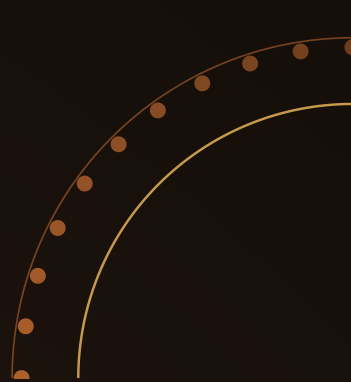

A hammered aluminium tray flanked by two elephant-head feet — equally at home serving canapés or holding keys by the door.

25

Butterfly Frame

A relief-cast frame in aged silver, its border alive with butterflies and trailing blossoms — for a favourite photograph.
